Cosy nests to stay in...

Quality, comfort and service

Take your time, enjoy the art of living in the Bordeaux hinterland... Entre-deux-Mers boasts a collection of nuggets that reinvent the art of country living. Furnished accommodation, bed and breakfasts and campsites all offer rejuvenating breaks in cosy surroundings. The quality of the services on offer means that holidaymakers can take a real break and enjoy precious moments.

The wandering Heritage Trails ...

The Entre-deux-Mers region has preserved the memory of its stones. Its monuments tell a story embellished by centuries. Wander through the backcountry of Bordeaux, from cobbled streets to ancient washhouses, and set out to discover this prestigious past.

More green, more gentle, more authentic, more varied

The Bordeaux hinterland will attract you from the very first thanks to its calm, beautiful countryside, with vine-covered slopes, dales with crops and meadows, and hilltops crowned with trees... The undulating topography welcomes you into its folds. It envelops a small rural galaxy with a patchwork of vineyards: châteaux, rural buildings, and bastides – gems of medieval urbanism.

Away from the major thoroughfares, Entre-deux-Mers inspires a wandering mood. Country roads, bike paths, botanical trails, and hidden pathways invite leisurely exploration. This hinterland beckons for both strolls and relaxation. Whether you explore it by cycling along its greenways or approach it by river, traverse it during the day, or settle in for a stay, this region accommodates all paces and remains accessible to everyone.

In these lands, people have been shaped by their work in the fields and vineyards. They are simple, hospitable, and friendly. Authenticity is shared generously here.

With its diverse terroirs, heritage, and activities, Entre-deux-Mers will delight wine enthusiasts, gourmets, lovers of artisanal craftsmanship, as well as hikers and art and history buffs.

THE DOLCEVITA BY BIKE!

BIKE-TRAIN TOUR

238 € / person
Base 2 persons

DAY 1 Town of Art and History and rural paths

Departure from Bordeaux by train up to La Réole

You'll reach the City of Art and History by train. From the station, hop on your bike and set off to discover this thousand-year-old city.

The narrow streets lined with half-timbered houses will lead you to the oldest town hall in France. The Terra Aventura route will take you through the narrow streets, past the 13th-century church of Saint-Pierre and to the esplanade next to the former Benedictine abbey, with its beautiful views over the Garonne valley.

It's time to start your day's cycle tour!

Time to fill up on oxygen!

On the Canal des 2 Mers route, you'll be cycling along small, quiet roads. Set in a sea of vineyards, this slightly hilly route leads to the fortified town of Sauveterre-de-Guyenne. You'll be welcomed in guest rooms

Diner with food and wine pairing at your B&B

Your host's winegrower godfather will join you for dinner. A convivial moment of exchange, dinner will be an opportunity to discover a different way of appreciating wine, based on the combination of food and wine. An introduction to wine tasting and practical exercises guided by the winemaker will give you an authentic experience.

Night and breakfast

DAY 2 A journey through vineyards, forest and bastide

Start the day with the Terra Aventura trail, a fun way to discover the small bastide town of Sauveterre-de-Guyenne! As you cycle along the cycle path, you'll be treated to the bucolic landscapes of the Bordeaux hinterland: woods, vineyards... You'll enjoy a unique experience as you pass through the La Sauve tunnel before reaching the Abbey of La Sauve Majeure, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, on your Terra Aventura cycle tour.

WINE-GROWING WALK

179 € / person
Base 2 persons

DAY 1

Welcome in the heart of a wine property

Green walks in the vineyards: a local walk accompanied by the winemaker. Amandine invites you to take part in a hike in the Benauges region to discover the richness of its terroir and its history. She'll take you on a 5km walk through the vineyards and woods, visiting 2 windmills and tasting 4 of her wines with cold meats and cheeses.

Walking tour of the hillsides and discovery of the medieval town of Rions

You'll follow country lanes and vineyard paths and enjoy some of the most revealing panoramic views of the Cadillac region. Overlooking the Garonne, nestling in the heart of the vineyards, the village of Rions is said to be one of the oldest in the Gironde. Despite the destruction wrought by conflicts over the centuries, the town has preserved numerous monuments, its fortified walls and the architectural treasures of its old houses.

Arrive late afternoon at your guest room

Aperitif and wine tasting

A winemaker will join you for the meal. The aperitif dinner will be an opportunity to discover a different way of appreciating wine: food and wine pairings, an introduction to tasting and exercises guided by the winemaker.

Night and breakfast

DAY 2

Landscape walk at Château Thieuley

Château Thieuley's Landscape Walk offers you a captivating immersion in the heart of the vineyard. You can explore the picturesque landscapes of the region while discovering the secrets of family winegrowing.

Experience this tranquil exploration on your own, with text, audio and video content tailored to your needs for total immersion!

Afterwards, you'll share a moment with the winemakers, visiting their cellars and tasting their wines in the spirit of conviviality and sharing that drives them.

Discover the pretty bastide town of Créon

This bastide town of English origin was the seat of the royal Prévôté de l'Entre-deux-Mers until the Revolution, and has remained a commercial town with renowned markets and fairs.

Included

Accommodation on a half-board basis, including an aperitif dinner with the winegrower, a walk accompanied by the winegrower and an audio guided walk, tastings and a travel diary for the self-guided walks.
